

13B40 - Chief Firing Battery

The chief of firing battery is the primary enlisted advisor to the XO and must be prepared to assume all of the XO's duties. His duties and responsibilities may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Supervise and maintain the firing capability of the battery
- Supervise the occupation of the position
- Supervise the overall maintenance of the firing battery
- Continue to develop and implement the battery defense plan
- Ensure that each chief of section knows the route to both alternate and supplementary positions
- Ensure ammunition is properly handled and protected
- Ensure safety aids and procedures are maintained
- Reviews, consolidates, and prepares technical, personnel, and administrative reports covering firing battery element activities